"Thora"

h. 55 cm, serpentijn, 2012

Carving your own statue in stone.
Living your fantasy in stone.
Working with transparent white alabaster,
or magical serpentine,
marble, stone of light.
Living the experience
how the sculpture grows in your hands.
Being creative.
And when you finally put down your tools, there it stands
YOUR STATUE, YOUR SCULPTURE.
